-> now shift to mobilizing resources to allow for implementation

Advancing multi-stakeholder action on WCAH in times of crisis

Prioritizing WCAH amid fiscal constraints

- In the face of unprecedented cuts, PMNCH is coordinating multisectoral partners, including through high-level dialogues and publications on innovative financing mechanisms, domestic resource allocation, and the growing shift towards health sovereignty and equitable financing for WCAH

Strengthening multisectoral action on preterm birth

- Launched journal supplement Born Too Soon: Progress, Priorities and Pivots for Preterm Birth in BMC Reproductive Health: 95 authors, from 67 organisations and 29 countries (including 19 LMICs); 10 papers, including high-level commentary by the heads of WHO, UNFPA, UNICEF, and Helen Clark.
- PMNCH's launch event brought together more than 450 participants (June 2025)

Strengthening Human Resources for Health through Inter-Professional Collaboration

- PMNCH convened partners, equipping them with practical tools to advocate for stronger human resources for health and enhanced interprofessional collaboration—both essential drivers of WCAH.

Integration of Non-communicable Diseases and SRMNCAH

- The UNGA80 Side Event: Uniting efforts on non-communicable diseases and maternal health: From Integration to Impact, with UNFPA, WHO, HRP, WDF, Jhpiego, Maternity Foundation and the NCD Alliance, including joint publication.

Uniting forces across strategic initiatives

New Success Stories initiative on good practices in SRHR and WCAH

- Leading the development of country case studies to accelerate progress toward SDG targets 3.1 and 3.2 and to strengthen comprehensive SRHR policies and implementation, including by fostering cross-country learning.
- First Success Story from Malawi on investing in life-saving commodities for women, children, and adolescents.

Collaborative Advocacy Action Plans (CAAPs)

Advancing SRHR Policies: stronger engagement with parliaments, health care professionals, youth networks, for advancing progressive SRHR policies, countering misinformation

Mobilization of increased resources for WCAH issues: budget advocacy for improved financial tracking across ministries, transparency

Strengthening accountability: leveraging pre-election campaigns for WCAH, with follow up after elections; institutional parliamentary engagements; strengthened civil society participation

CAAPs country peer learning exchange initiative

Parliamentary Engagement

Launch of the Parliamentary Network of Champions (chaired by Hon. Speaker of South Africa) in support of the GLN

Strengthening parliamentarian knowledge and action for greater political commitment, policy coherence and accountability for WCAH issues at national, global and regional levels

Elevating CSO perspectives and facilitating diverse parliamentary perspectives at the First Global Parliamentary Dialogue alongside the World Health Assembly

Strengthening Parliamentary action on WCAH through engagements with Inter Parliamentary Union (IPU):

- Global webinars 'Partnering for Progress: Parliamentarians and Civil Society Advancing Health for All Women, Children and Adolescents' and Navigating Health Misinformation in the Age of AI
- National Assembly of Malawi to embed WCAH focus in the orientation of the incoming parliament

Nigerian lawmakers of Bauchi State committed to driving legislative oversight and ensure immunization financing accountability in line with the Lagos Declaration on Zero Dose, coordinated by the Africa Health Budget Network, August 2025

Senator Hon. Beatrice Ogolla, Kenya calling to pass the Maternal, Newborn, and Child Health Bill, 2023, to strengthen coordination, financing, and accountability for MNCH services, November 2025

Building capacity for impact

Campaigning, communications and media

- Increasing reporting by journalists on WCAH aims to provide them with the tools, resources and contacts to facilitate reporting and increase media impact (9 October).
- Workshop targeted to advocates and communicators on how to campaign on WCAH in a complex environment with lessons (30 October)

Understanding and applying evidence

- Workshop on strengthening advocacy capacity for Innovative and Sustainable Financing of Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights, convened advocates, decision-makers, and stakeholders to share strategies, build skills, enhance collaboration, and explore practical solutions to advance a progressive agenda on SRHR (November 2025).

Working with CAAPs partners to use the media strategically for their work. Writing and pitching support for Malawi and Kenya yielded articles covered by nearly 20 outlets – positioning calls for key issues such as passing the Maternal Health Bill in Kenya

PMNCH 2026-2027 Consolidated Workplan Overview

Unified Strategic Framework

Unified Strategic Framework

The workplan integrates SRHR, AHWB, and the Unfinished Agenda into a cohesive framework for effective action.

Five Action Areas

Key focus areas include financing, accountability, building partnerships, policies, and capacity building.

Expected Impacts

Galvanizing partnerships and global south leadership; greater equity; stronger accountability; and improved health service delivery across partners.

“True progress in health and development comes when all voices, especially those of women, children and adolescents are heard, valued and included in decision-making. PMNCH champions this inclusive approach, ensuring no one is left behind.”

Levy Mkandawire
Programme Manager, Amref Health Africa Zambia, and CAAP focal point in Zambia

PMNCH
2024
ANNUAL REPORT

Innovations in the 2026–2027 Workplan

Integrated Systems Framework

The workplan introduces a shift to an integrated, systems-based approach for improved coherence and impact.

Advanced Digital Monitoring

Use of advanced digital tools enhances monitoring capabilities and supports data-driven decision making.

Institutionalized Coalition-Building

Formal mechanisms for coalition-building, particularly focusing on global south countries and partners to strengthen collaboration and collective action.

Focus on Root Cause Analysis & Misinformation

Formalizing root cause analysis and combating misinformation ensure deeper problem-solving and accurate information flow.

Ways of Working

Coordinated Delivery

PMNCH implements the workplan through coordinated efforts of partners and the Secretariat for effective delivery.

Cross-constituency Working Groups

Working groups are established to enable joint implementation across different constituencies for unified action.

Secretariat's Facilitation Role

The Secretariat facilitates cooperation, disseminates tools, monitors progress, and identifies collective action opportunities.

Leveraging Strengths for Impact

The collaborative approach leverages constituency strengths and aligns with partner priorities for greater impact.
