What is The Commission on the Status of Women

The Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) is the fundamental global intergovernmental body exclusively dedicated to the “promotion of gender equality” and the empowerment of women.

The CSW is influential in promoting women’s rights, provide evidence the reality of women’s lives throughout the world, and shaping global standards on gender equality and the empowerment of women.

UN Women supports all aspects of the Commission’s work. We also facilitate the participation of civil society representatives.
